KOSHER WINE

Started in the 1920s by a penniless political and religious refugee from Lithuania, Backsberg is among the most progressive vineyards on earth today. Nestled on the slopes of the Simonsberg mountain, Backsberg is located mid-way between Paarl and Stellenbosch. Fourth generation proprietor Simon Back and his team are committed to preserving Backsberg's rich 100-year heritage while making strides as forerunners in areas such as sustainability and conservation. As South Africa's first certified carbon neutral wine producer, Backsberg follows a 'tread lightly' approach that extends from the vineyard to the cellar and beyond.
